

Holcomb Farm Zombie Trail

Rules and regulations!

Yep, we know it will and should be chaos with freaking ZOMBIES running around, but we need a little order so we limit the blood on the course to the fake kind!

So sorry, but we have some hard and fast rules:

These are mostly common sense, but we know how fast that can go out the window!

Rules for everyone!

- You have to be at least 18 to compete without a signed parental permission slip. Children get lost in the woods and eaten! If you are under 14, you need to be on a team with a designated adult! (someone your parents think you will be safe with!)
- You must sign an event waiver in order to be allowed to start the race. If you are under 18 the waiver must be completed by a parent. Waivers are available on line and will be available the day of the event.
- No pets of any kind on the course! (even the sweetest pup might bite to protect you from Zombies!)
- No weapons, play weapons, fire, sharp objects or gear considered dangerous by the organizers-even if it is part of your costume!
- No physical contact between participants. Shoving, pushing, defending your flag, or any aggressive behavior will not be tolerated on the Trail. You will be asked to leave immediately if observed or reported by participants, staff or volunteers! (this is a FUN event, it is about PLAY, let's not get carried away!)
- ZOMBIES and HUMANS must stay within the course boundaries. Use caution, the trail is thru woods, watch where you are going. Trees, rocks, roots and branches are part of the trail. The Trail organizers are not responsible for accidental injuries resulting from falls or missteps on the trail!
- Speaking of woods, TICKS are a reality. Use tick spray, ticks like Zombie blood as much as human blood, and you Zombies will be out there longer than the runners!
- The "That Guy" rule: If you are making other participants uncomfortable, not playing nice, fair, or in the spirit of the Trail

Event, organizers reserve the right to require you to leave at any point without further explanation (or refund).

- Remember, this is a FUN Trail Event. There is not a competition, no times are taken, and there is no “winner” no award for the deadliest zombie. Have a good time, live or die, who cares as long as we all have a blast scaring ourselves silly!
- Human Rules
- You must keep your flag belt and race number on at all times!
- You cannot leave the course boundaries as marked on the trails
- You may wear anything you like (dress up!) but no weapons (see above) but you must be able to get a flag belt around your waist and a race number attached to your chest.
- You may run the course, walk or crawl, it isn’t timed. The only time running will be required is to avoid the Zombies and they are only on parts of the trail. And even then, if you have a death wish: walk thru the zombies, getting eaten isn’t so bad...from what I hear anyway!
- ZOMBIE RULES
- Do your own Zombie make up before the event. We will have some basic touch up supplies on site to keep your complexion nice and dead, your wounds nice and red, but you are responsible for the really creative stuff!
- You MUST attend one of the two Zombie Training sessions offered the week before the race in order to participate. You MUST ATTEND! Being a Zombie takes some preparation.
- You must keep your headband and race number on at all times
- You cannot leave the race boundaries or your Zombie Zone (marked and reviewed during Zombie Training)
- If you are “shot’ by a Zombie Hunter (trail staff) you must sit down and chill until they tell you that you can get back up. Typically just a minute or two.. You cannot “eat” a human while stunned!
- Have Fun, your job is to scar the pants off the runners. No one cares how many humans you eat...just give them a good scare!
